-- As Reported by Exporters

Outstanding export sales as reported by private exporters and compiled with other data in this release give a snapshot view of the current contracting scene. At any given time in the course of a marketing year outstanding sales do not bear a consistent relationship to eventual export shipments. A meaningful export projection is not obtainable by the simple device of adding outstanding sales to exports to date. The latter data, alone, may provide a more reliable measure of current export activity than may be derived from a year-to-year comparison of outstanding sales.

EXPORT SALES REPORT

Comments on release of February 19, 1976 (based on reports from exporters during the week ending February 8, unless otherwise noted):

Wheat: The apparent export commitment (cumulative exports plus outstanding sales) for 1975/76 rose by 152,000 metric tons (MT), the largest weekly increase to date this year. Some of the larger increases in commitments this week were to Brazil (48,900 MT), Indonesia (42,000 MT), and Portugal (25,000 MT). Commitments to Brazil continue to climb and now total 2.5 million MT, compared with 726,200 MT at the corresponding period a year ago. Commitments to Indonesia now total 292,800 MT, more than double the amount committed at this time last year. In contrast, Portugal's commitments have reached only 52,500 MT, compared with 266,400 MT for the comparable period last year. Commitments to the USSR declined by 89,800 MT, reflecting cancellations and destination changes previously reported under the daily reporting system.

Feedgrains: The apparent export commitment for feedgrains jumped by 1.0 million MT, largely reflecting increased commitments for corn of 870,100 MT. The most significant increases in corn commitments were to Italy (227,900 MT), Poland (98,600 MT), and unknown destinations (161,100 MT). An 80,000 MT increase in commitments to the USSR reflects transfers from optional origin rather than new sales. The jump in commitments to Italy has pushed total commitments to that country for the year to 838,400 MT, still more than 2.0 million MT under the commitment at this time last year. In 1974/75, however, reports of a poor U.S. corn harvest had precipitated abnormally large early season forward purchases by the Italians, some of which were subsequently cancelled since eventual exports totaled only 2.7 million MT, according to Bureau of the Census data. Poland's total commitments now stand at 1.4 million MT, compared with 1.1 million MT at this time last year. The increase in corn commitments this year reflects reduced imports of feedgrains from the USSR, Poland's traditional supplier.

Sorghum commitments increased by 132,400 MT, bringing this year's total commitments to 3.9 million MT, compared with 5.5 million MT at this time last year. The largest increases in commitments were to East European destinations, principally East Germany (50,000 MT) and Poland (33,000 MT). In addition, Japan bought 49,200 MT to bring total commitments to that country to 1.6 million MT for the year.

Rice: The apparent export commitment for rice rose by 44,200 MT, largely as a result of increases of 21,000 MT and 10,000 MT to the European Community (EC) and Spain, respectively. Total commitments for the year have now reached 943,300 MT, compared with 1.7 million MT for the comparable period last year.

Soybeans: The apparent export commitment for 1975/76 increased by 259,400 MT, primarily reflecting increased commitments to the EC, Spain,

Errata to "U.S. Export Sales" report released at 3:00 P.M. on February 12, 1976

Data concerning purchases of wheat by the USSR was incorrectly shown in the Comments and on pages 2 and 29 of the report. Other data on these pages remain unchanged. The following should be substituted for the erroneous data:

Changes in Comments -

Most of the sales data changes involving the USSR in the last two months reflect contract adjustments between U.S. exporters and foreign trading firms. The data do not reflect new activity on part of Soviet purchasing authorities. Since the December 4, 1975 issue, the main data changes are as follows: All wheat: grand total minus 190,000 M.T., reflecting cancellations of 1976/77 sales. Corn, grand total plus 281,000 M.T. reflecting mainly a shift to U.S. origin from another origin under already existing contracts reported in the January 29 issue.
